Register for one of our upcoming NIDUS Resource Tours: December 19, 2022 | January 25, 2023

Learn how to fully utilize NIDUS Resources to improve and accelerate your delirium research. Nadya Shlykova will lead a virtual NIDUS Resource Tour. These include:

- Measurement Information Cards
- Measurement Harmonization tools
- Research Hub
- Collaboration Communication Site
- NIDUS Delirium Bibliography
- Webinars
- Boot Camp

NIDUS Resource Tours

NIDUS will hold the third and final virtual Resource Tour on January 25, 2023.

What is delirium?

Delirium is a common and serious problem for older adults and is characterized by sudden confusion or change in mental status. Delirium can have serious complications, including long-term functional decline, loss of independence, high healthcare costs, and even death. Many cases are preventable.

Welcome to Delirium Central

The Delirium Central website contains resources about delirium for clinicians, researchers, patients, and family members. The website is maintained by Dr. Sharon K. Inouye and the Aging Brain Center team at the Marcus Institute for Aging Research, a Harvard Medical School affiliate.

About NIDUS

---

NIDUS is a collaborative research network dedicated to spurring innovation and new advances in delirium research through development of new research and measurement resources, training opportunities, pilot funding and dissemination of information. It is funded through an award from the National Institutes of Health/National Institute on Aging (grant no. R33AG071744, PI: Inouye).
