Pilot Funding for Delirium Research: 2020-2021 Pilot Award Call for Proposals Still Open!

What could you do with $50,000 for delirium research?

Apply for a NIDUS Pilot Grant by November 7, 2019 and find out! The one-year pilot awards encourage innovative research by targeting priority areas of delirium investigation. At least two grants of $50,000 each (total direct costs) will be awarded. Indirect costs are supported. Awardees will be notified by March 1, 2020. Two application tracks are available: junior investigator track and established investigator track.

Want to learn more about the NIDUS Delirium Pilot Grant Program, what should go in a proposal, and what reviewers are looking for? Join Pilot Leaders Michael Avidan and Thomas Robinson on Thursday, September 26, 10 am EST for an informational webinar.
