WEBINAR

N-of-1 Trials to Promote Deprescribing

Dr. Parag Goyal

Associate Professor of Medicine at Weill Cornell Medicine in the Division of Cardiology and the Division of General Internal Medicine

This webinar will outline the potential value of N-of-1 trials as an innovative strategy to promote deprescribing (and more broadly, shared decision making). Suitability as a deprescribing intervention, key methodologic considerations, and a case example will be presented.

October 7 HELP GSA Special Interest Group Session

The upcoming AGS CoCare®: HELP GSA Special Interest Group will discuss the Hospital Elder Life Program and offer an overview of HELP. One AGS CoCare®: HELP site will cover how they got started and overcame barriers. Attendees will also participate in an interactive open discussion and Q&A time. Learn more on the GSA website.
